Information for OCF Grantees

Oregon Community Foundation grant programs vary widely in size, reporting requirements, and application processes. We are providing this information to assist with your recent grant award.

Public Recognition for your Grant Award: Grantee media resources are available here with our logo and ways for you to engage with OCF to publicize your grant award. Please list the names of the funds contributing to your grant as they are noted in the grant award letter.

Grant Types: Find the grant type for your grant at the bottom of your award letter.

- Advised Fund Grants: Donors and fund advisors recommend grants to specific organizations from Donor Advised Funds. Find OCF's Organization Profile tool and read more about Donor Advised Fund grants on our website.
- Community Advised Fund Grants: A committee makes recommendations for grants to organizations that fit the parameters of the fund. Some have open application processes and others do not. Some applications are open by invitation only.
- Designated and Institutional Scholarship Grants: When these funds are created, the donor names the organization(s) that will benefit from the fund. All distributions are made per the fund agreement. Read more about these grants here.
- Discretionary Grants: Most of OCF's open applications are part of a discretionary grant program. Discretionary grants may also be awarded as part of specific strategic initiatives rather than an open application process.

Donor Contact Information: OCF donors create unique funds that have a wide range of focus areas and parameters. Funds that support your grant may or may not have living donors. The donor may have been actively involved in the recommendation of your grant or may have no active involvement. If your award letter included contact information for the fund's donors, you are welcome to reach out. If no contact information is provided, it is not necessary to contact the donors, and OCF staff will not be able to provide contact information.

Reporting Requirements: If there are reporting requirements for your grant, they will be included in your grant award letter. Not all grants require reports. More information can be found here about reporting requirements for OCF's various grant types and programs.

Grant Questions: We understand that circumstances can change unexpectedly for our grantees and their programs & projects. Please contact us at grants@oregoncf.org if you are unable to use all or part of a grant award for the specified purpose, or if you have other concerns about your ability to use a grant.

Nonprofit Registration

Oregon Community Foundation is committed to supporting a strong nonprofit sector, which includes ensuring our nonprofit partners have appropriate registration through the IRS and Oregon Department of Justice.

OCF confirms grantee registration through the following free sites:

- IRS Registration: IRS Website or Candid
- Oregon Registration: ODOJ Website

Nonprofits need to register with the Oregon Department of Justice if they are:

- a corporation organized in Oregon as a public benefit nonprofit
- a corporation organized in another state as a nonprofit which solicits, holds assets, or does business in Oregon
- a trust which holds assets in Oregon for charitable beneficiaries
- an association organized for charitable purposes

There are exceptions to the above requirements, but those are rare. We recommend that all nonprofits, regardless of their location or the services they provide, contact the Oregon Department of Justice to determine if registration is necessary. Please email them at charitable@doj.state.or.us or call them at 971-673-1880 with any questions or concerns.
